

Jaime Scholnick is a visual artist working in a variety of mediums and forms. She received her MFA from The Claremont Graduate University. After a five year expatriation to Japan to study papermaking, Ms. Scholnick returned to Los Angeles in 1999. Her work has been exhibited in galleries and museums nationally and internationally; at PS1 Long Island City, PØST, Angles Gallery, CB1 Gallery, UCLA Hammer, the Torrance Museum of Art, Barnsdall Municipal Art Gallery and in LAX Terminal One. Her 400 foot (porcelain glazes on steel) mural will be installed at the Crenshaw-Expo Station on the METRO LAX-Crenshaw Line (opening 2018). She is a 2017 Recipient of the California Community Foundation Visual Arts Fellowship. She was the recipient of the Imadate Art Field Artist in Residence , Imadate Japan. Ms. Scholnick lives and maintains a studio in Los Angeles.